

Cathy Fuller
Human Resources Director
City of Talladega
256-761-2960
cfuller@talladega.com

The City of Talladega has a small town atmosphere with a population 15,846. Talladega, Alabama is located at the foothills of the Cheaha Mountains and home to the Alabama Institute of Deaf and Blind, historic Talladega College, and the Talladega SuperSpeedway. The City Manager is appointed by and serves a five-member City Council as the City's chief administrative officer. The City Manager is responsible for leading, directing and coordinating the overall operation of the City organization with a 2015 Budget of $20 million and 200 employees.

Bachelor's Degree in Business Management, Public Administration, Urban/Regional Planning, Government, Engineering, or Accounting supplemented by a Master's degree in public administration or similar field and five years in a managerial position required. Must have familiarity with laws governing municipal operations, long-range strategic planning, and knowledge of procedures to receive federal, state and county grants for special projects. Excellent communication, interpersonal and relationship-building skills required. Comprehensive benefits package, salary starting at $85,000 DOQ. City residence required within six months of employment. Please submit cover letter and resume by March 31 to:

Human Resources Director
City of Talladega
100 Court Street North
Talladega, AL 35160

Or online at cfuller@talladega.com. The City of Talladega is an Equal Opportunity Employer. Complete position profile available at talladega.com.