

What is ALCountiesTweet?

It's a friendly Twitter competition among counties that will begin and end in conjunction with the 2018 Legislative Session.

Why is ALCountiesTweet important to counties?

Currently, 61% of the Ala. Legislature is on Twitter and utilizing the social media platform to gauge public interest on legislation. Counties need to be part of the conversation on Twitter so that legislators know where we stand on the issues.

How do you compete in ALCountiesTweet?

Call Abby Luker Fitzpatrick or Jeannie Gaines at (334) 263-7594 for complete assistance.

1. Create a Twitter account.
2. Complete your Twitter profile by adding a photo of yourself and filling in your bio.
3. Send out legislative-focused tweets. Use hashtags #ALpolitics and #Your County (e.g., #Autauga, #Winston) in EVERY tweet.

How do you help your county win ALCountiesTweet?

Call Abby Luker Fitzpatrick or Jeannie Gaines at (334) 263-7594 for complete assistance.

Tweet your legislator. Tweet about important legislation. Tweet your support of or opposition to bills. And once again, be sure to use hashtags #ALpolitics and #Your County in EVERY tweet.

Which county wins ALCountiesTweet?

The county with the highest number of tweets to legislators and the highest number of legislative-focused tweets wins! The winning county will be announced and awarded at the ACCA Annual Convention in August.
