THE COMMUNITY

Known for its rich history, Montgomery County is a thriving community nestled in the heart of Alabama. With more than 225,000 residents, Montgomery County includes the state capital, Montgomery, and the town of Pike Road. It's the perfect mixture of small town southern charm and big city vibrancy. From the world-renowned Alabama Shakespeare Festival to the Montgomery Biscuits, a minor league baseball team, the Montgomery Zoo, the Montgomery Museum of Fine Arts, and just a short drive to the beach or mountains, Montgomery County is the ideal location for families to live, work, and play.

COUNTY GOVERNMENT

Montgomery County strives every day to meet the needs and enhance the quality of life for all citizens. It is governed by the Montgomery County Commission, consisting of five elected members. The Commission's responsibilities include control of all county public funds, adoption of an annual budget, maintaining county roads, providing services for all county departments and providing support for all activities being supplied by the county. The County Administrator, appointed by the Commission, facilitates the delivery of quality services to the citizens of Montgomery County. The Administrator is responsible for implementing policy enacted by the Commissioners for the day-to-day operations.
